

ACCLAIMED THE SIMPLEST BEST SYSTEM EVER PRODUCED

INSTRUCTIONS

Showcards, posters. advertisements, signs, and menus can be easily made by the DASH-DOT METHOD of fast writing. The result will be most satisfactory as it gives a clear and readable headline in far less time than ordinary lettering. Any one capable of just drawing a few boxes can now make a sign or poster that will compare favorably with that of any artist's.

Draw two lines, as shown above, the shape and size to be the word or headline wanted.

Then draw lines to make a box for each letter or space between two words. Make them all the same size except for the letter I which is half a box.

To make an artistic job, point the ends as in Figure 3. If you are making the word HOUSE, the boxes should appear as in Figure 3.

Study the guide to the alphabet carefully and you will see that H needs two dashes, O one dash, U one dash, S two dashes, and E two dashes.

When you place them into the boxes, it will appear as in Figure 4. By using curved lines and pointed ends as below, you will have a more pleasing result. Study the lay-out of the cover for fancy lines and edges.
